MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Frederick P. Hitz
Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT: Fiscal Year 1981 Intelligence Authorization
Bill

1. Action requested: Your signature on the attached letter transmitting the draft Fiscal Year 1981 Intelligence Authorization Bill to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.
2. Background: This will be the third specific annual authorization of appropriations for intelligence, and the process has become institutionalized. My Legislation Division has once again drafted the Bill, in consultation with concerned Agency components and the Intelligence Community Staff. The Intelligence Community was given the opportunity to propose material for inclusion in the combined CIA and Intelligence Community Legislative Program for the second session of the 96th Congress. The Authorization Bill must now be submitted to the Office of Management and Budget.
3. The Bill is essentially the same as the Fiscal Year 1980 Act, and does not require accompaniment by a detailed sectional analysis. The provision authorizing the Central Intelligence Agency to accept gifts and bequests should be self-explanatory.
4. Your transmittal letters to the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate make reference to congressional action on separate pieces of pending legislation designed to safeguard intelligence capabilities. With our death gratuity legislation having developed a momentum of its own, it would seem advisable to continue to pursue that legislation separately as well. Its inclusion in the Authorization Bill could subject the proposal to recoordination within the Administration.

4. Staff Position: Appropriate Agency components and elements of the Intelligence Community Staff have been consulted in connection with the draft Bill.

5. Recommendation: That you sign the attached letter to OMB Director McIntyre transmitting the Fiscal Year 1981 Intelligence Authorization Bill.

Frederick P. Hitz

Honorable James T. McIntyre, Jr., Director
Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Mr. McIntyre:

In accordance with Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-19, revised, I am submitting proposed legislation for your advice as to whether it is in accord with the program of the President. Enclosed are ten copies of a draft "Intelligence and Intelligence-Related Activities Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1981." Also enclosed are draft letters of transmittal to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Fiscal Year 1981 Intelligence Authorization Bill was identified as proposal number 96/2 - 3 in the proposed Central Intelligence Agency and Intelligence Community Legislative Program, which was forwarded to your office on 15 November 1979 as part of the consolidated National Foreign Intelligence Program budget. The draft Bill has been prepared in consultation with the Intelligence Community.

The draft Fiscal Year 1981 Intelligence Authorization Bill is essentially the same as the Fiscal Year 1980 Act (P.L. 96-100). Consistent with Section 7e of Circular No. A-19, the draft Bill contains a provision relating to compliance with Section 607 of P.L. 93-344, the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. The draft Bill also contains a self-explanatory technical provision which would authorize the Central Intelligence Agency to accept gifts and bequests.

I would be most appreciative of your assistance in securing prompt Administration clearance of this proposed legislation, and in ensuring that resource allocations for fiscal year 1981 reflect the President's expressed determination to enhance the nation's intelligence capability.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Honorable Thomas P. O'Neill
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Speaker:

This letter transmits for the consideration of the Congress a draft "Intelligence and Intelligence-Related Activities Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1981."

Cooperative efforts by the Executive and Legislative Branches in the authorization process have been indicative of the strong bonds that the Administration and Congress have forged in the development of meaningful congressional participation in the oversight of our nation's intelligence apparatus. I am confident that for fiscal year 1981 the Congress will provide the resources needed to enhance the Intelligence Community's ability to monitor the military activities of our adversaries and to provide insights into the political, economic, and social forces which will shape world affairs in the 1980's.

The draft Intelligence Authorization Bill is essentially the same as the Fiscal Year 1980 Act (P.L. 96-100). Consistent with Administration policy, Title IV contains a technical provision relating to compliance with Section 607 of P.L. 93-344, the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. The draft Bill also contains a provision which would authorize the Central Intelligence Agency to accept gifts and bequests. This provision is designed to enable the Agency to receive artistic works, books, funds for employee recreation activities, memorabilia, and the like.

I am hopeful that the Congress will heed the President's call for increased efforts to guard against damage to our crucial intelligence sources and methods, and will move forward with several separate pieces of pending legislation designed to safeguard intelligence capabilities without impairing the rights of Americans or interfering with legitimate congressional oversight.

Early and favorable consideration of the draft "Intelligence and Intelligence-Related Activities Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1981" would be greatly appreciated. The Office of Management and Budget has advised that enactment of this proposed legislation would be in accord with the program of the President.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
